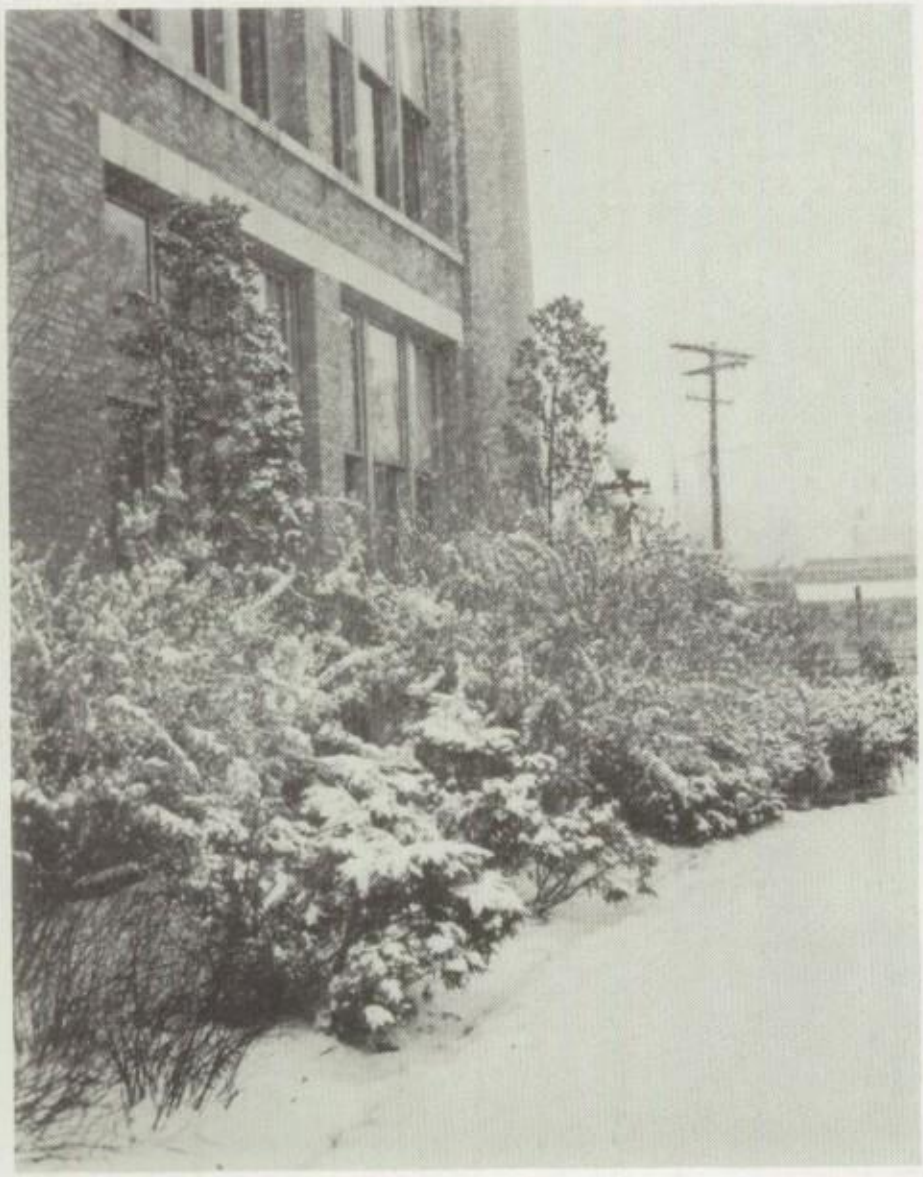
The Colophon... 1957

Published by the Senior Class and the Student Body
of Elmer L. Meyers High School, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

Foreword

We have reached the time in our school days when our present memories and sentiments are at the brightest. We have the past behind us. We have the future ahead. It is the purpose of this book to serve as a spotlight to pick out and illuminate the highlights of our school life, and to display them so that the present glow of retrospect may remain, and each time we review it, visions of the varied life at Meyers may return as strongly impressed as today.

We, who have prepared this volume, present it to you with the hope that immediate pleasure and an ever lasting interest in our Meyers' High School, may be the result of turning its pages.



Dedication

Miss Iona Brelsford

During our six years at Meyers you have helped to inculcate in us the ideals of adults which you prize so highly and which you have always demanded that we possess because you know how greatly we need them in this world today. We can never repay you for the intellectual and social guidance you have given us for which our appreciation is deep and sincere.

As a small token of gratitude, we dedicate to you the 1957 Colophon. To our teacher, our counselor, our friend, and our confidante, we want to say, "Thanks". From the time we arrived at our beloved Meyers as frightened seventh graders until the glorious days of our Senior year, we have benefitted by your motherly concern for our individual growth. You have taken our charcaters and moulded them into the semblance of adults.

For all your interest and devotion, we thank you,

Miss Brelsford

In Memory

Mr. Leon English

In October, 1956, the faculty and students of Meyers were saddened by the death of Mr. Leon English, the teacher in the Sheet Metal Shop for fourteen years. Many were the boys who had learned skill and competence under his direction.

His witty good humor was an asset which never deserted him. In any group he was a pleasant asset and his cordial good manners made him a much admired person.

Mr. English had furthered his own ability at his trade at Penn State and at Carnegie Tech, and had had years of experience before taking up teaching.

We were proud to have him on our faculty and we shall remember him long into the future.

LEWIS ROBERT ZWIEBEL
"Mouse"

Handsome and stalwart with a mask of freckles . . . ooh those adorable curls . . . little boy appeal with baby blue eyes and a beaming smile . . . a sportsman on the court with basketball talents . . . a ready blush; a sweet, bashful and innocent air . . . a diligent and industrious worker with overwhelming results.

"Everything we know of him we like."

GERALDINE ANN WOLFE
"Gerry"

Tiny frame and features accented by bright hazel eyes . . . capricious and impulsive with a love of pleasure . . . fascinated, intuitive and determined, a future bookkeeper . . . a short light bob, a fatuous dreamer . . . a writer of poetry, a self-assured worker . . . subtle and artful, an elusive delicacy.

"Good sense is a gift of heaven."

ROBERT JAMES ZWIEBEL
"Bob"

The kind of manners we wish we had . . . shy smile . . . eagerness to do his job . . . ready to fill a gap . . . how those ladies rally round . . . charm to spare . . . long to be remembered.

"Handsome is that handsome does."

CAROL ANN WOLSIEFER
"Willie"

Short bronze colored hair with twinkling blue eyes . . . pleasingly plump with a dry sense of humor . . . a hardy chuckle and then a gale of laughter . . . a member of the Y-Teens . . . school spirited with the anxiety for having fun . . . fond of music and food.

"Laugh yourself into stitches."

CARL EDMUND LUCAS
"Carl"

Instantaneous wit and a personified greeting . . . mischievousness, the start of an epidemic . . . a booming voice always with the crowd . . . choir music and the big step . . . a long ranger with creditable determination . . . a stride typical of the hour . . . diplomatic helpfulness, ever-ready to lend a hand.

"Mind moves matter."

CLASS SONG

We the class of Fifty-Seven on graduation day,
Will leave these halls forever to go our separate ways.
We vow to keep thy honor pure and hold thy banners high,
Because we love thee dearly we'll always keep thee nigh.

CHORUS
The memories we have shared throughout our high school years,
Long after we have parted will echo in our ears.
The beams that shed a guiding light will always make us strive
For promises of fame in the glory of thy name.

Bea Chigos '57

FAREWELL SONG

Dear Meyers High we leave thee now,
To go our separate ways,
But we will e'er remember thee,
And all our happy days.
So Meyers now we bid farewell,
To joys that we've once known.
And so we hold with deep regret,
How fast these years have flown.

Farewell to thee, dear Meyers High,
The parting hour is here,
Our futures shine before our eyes,
But we'll keep mem'ries dear.
Farewell to thee, dear Meyers High,
We fling thy colors wide,
Although we leave thee with a sigh,
We'll ever hold thee near.

Dellamae Wright '57

ALMA MATER

From hall and class thy students come,
From fields thy warriors bold.
To raise with honor, glory, love,
The royal blue and gold.
So now to dear old Meyers High
We proudly stand and sing,
While clear against the azure blue,
Thy honored name we fling.

When we must leave thy guiding hand
To take our place in life,
Then we will keep thy honor clear
Through all our joy and strife.
And when the hand of memory
Rolls back times gathering haze,
We'll pause once more, as now we do,
To sing again thy praise.

CHORUS
Loud and long
Let us raise the song of glory
As thy banners of truth
Proudly fly.
On through life, in our hearts
We will cherish
Steadfast forever,
Meyers High.
